Naples, Feb. 28.

SOME Days ago several Inhabitants of this City, among others the Brothers nam'd Moscerta, who are of German Extraction and contributed not a little to the last Change of Government, were taken into Custody by a Company of Soldiers. The Cause of their being apprehended is not known, but 'tis guess'd they have talk'd too freely of the present Regency. To Day the Counsellors of Taun went to our Cathedral with a numerous Attendance of Ladies of Quality, as well Germans as Neapolitans, to view the Head and coagulated Blood of St. Januarius Patron of this City. The Scarcity of Corn is become so great here, that it has been found necessary to open the publick Granaries, but the Stores in them cannot suffice for above a Fortnight, therefore our Viceroy has given Order for bringing from Apulia by Land a great Quantity of Corn, though the Carriage by Horses and Mules be very dear. The 26th a Council of War was held, to deliberate whether it might not be convenient to establish a Place of Arms in Calabria, in Order to oppose all sudden Descents which the Enemy may make in that Province, but no Resolution was taken thereupon. We talk no longer of invading Sicily, but are taking Measures to reduce to the Obedience of King Charles the Places in Tuscany that belong to the Crown of Spain. To that End 4 Battallions of Imperialists, 12 Pieces of heavy Cannon, 6 Mortars, and 2000 Bombs are Shipp'd off: And our Viceroy designs to cause the rest of the Imperial Troops that are quarter'd in the Country to draw this Way, as well to keep under Subjection the Populace of this City, as to secure the Soldiers from the Fury of the Peasants of divers Villages, who kill all that come in their Way. His Excellency has order'd Barracks to be built for the said Troops near the Gate of Capua: And the Duke de Monteleone has the Inspection of that Building; tho' 'tis not yet begun, because the Person who has undertaken it, demands to be paid 10000 Ducats in Hand. The old Prince of Belvedere has withdrawn himself from his Seat in Calabria, and 'tis not known whither he is gone; which, with the Advice we have receiv'd from Sicily, that the Viceroy of that Kingdom has order'd all the Men fit for Service in that Island, from 20 to 50 Years of Age, to hold themselves ready to take Arms and embark, give Umbrage to our Government. The Prince d'Elboeuf is arriv'd here in 15 Days from Barcelona; and has brought an Account of the Landing of the Forces there from Italy, and that his Catholick Majesty has appointed Cardinal Grimani to be Viceroy of this Kingdom, which causes great Rejoycing here. The said Prince d'Elboeuf is made a Grandee of Spain, and Major General, with a yearly Pension of 5000 Crowns, besides an Assignment of 1500 Crowns, out of the Revenues of the Bishoprick of Tarentum.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 23.

Leghorne, Feb. 28. A Vessel that is arriv'd here from Porto-Ferrajo, has brought an Account, that the Imperialists had posses'd themselves of Capolineri; but having Intelligence that two Gallies of the Duke of Tuscis's Squadron were arriv'd at Porto-Ferrajo with 200 Men, they abandon'd that Post, carrying off 1 Cannon, 12 Barils of Powder, 50 Grenadoes, and 300 Bullets.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gaz. dated March 23.

Rome, March 3. Yesterday the Pope heard a sermon in the Chappel of the Vatican, and afterwards went to the Cathedral of St. Peter, attended by a great Number of Cardinals and other Prelates: His Holyness has not had his Health so well a long time as at present. The Brother of the Prince of Lichtenstein is arriv'd here from Venice, and has taken up his Lodgings in the Palace of Cardinal Grimani: 'tis reported that he designs to go to see the Kingdom of Naples; and the Cardinal will go thither, as soon as he has receiv'd his Commission of Viceroy. The Pope being inform'd that the Apostolical Chamber has lost very much, since the Office of the Datary for Ecclesiastical Benefices in Spain was shut up, has caus'd that Office to be open'd again; and has even consented to the Demand of King Philip, that the Power of Nomination to the Ecclesiastical Benefices in his Dominions should be lodg'd in the Duke d' Uzeda his Ambassador: But to keep the Balance even, he has likewise consented, that Cardinal Grimani shall also nominate to the vacant Benefices in the Countries that have submitted to King Charles. Cardinal Carpegna being grown very old, has voluntarily laid down the Office of Vicar of the College of Cardinals, and the Pope has dispos'd of it to Cardinal Paolucci. The Queen Dowager of Poland is preparing to set out in a short Time for France.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 23.

Venice, March 10. On Thursday last a new Ship of 90 Guns was launch'd in our Arsenal, and we continue to make Preparations here to be ready in Case of Necessity to repel all Insults that may be offer'd us. The Duke of Savoy continues his Preparations, to augment his Troops and open the Campaign early. The Gallies of the Duke of Tuscis have sail'd from Porto-Longone towards Civitavecchia, there to take in 500 Men, and Stores of Ammunition and Provisions which the Ministers of the two Crowns have sent thither, in order to succour Porto-Hercule, the Garrison of which begin to want Provisions. The Imperialists on their Part have reforc'd the Fortress of San Stephano with Men and Ammunition, and wait for Reinforcements from Naples. They write from Genoa, that 4 Pacquet-boats are settled to pass constantly between that Place and Catalonia.
